Chief Killourey has investigated the miory of an Auburn jouring car that has been parked at the intersection of Ash and Main street for a period of over three month. The car is a model 1638, serial number 13,886 and the number 13,886 and the number of the motor is $1,110. The machine, according to the speedometer, had only been driven about 9,983 miles. According to garage men this car was left there by a man giving his name as Devine who at the time stated that he was going to leave the car there for a time while he went home to get parts are assay to replace those broken. He has never shown up. What will become of the car is rot yet settled. The theory is that the ear might have been stolen before brought to this city.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

One of the best vaudeville shows ever witnessed in the city of Norwick is at the Strand Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Wardell Bros. & Lacasta, the act of the better class, with their singins, dancing, talking could not be beaten. Their wonderful volces and classy wardrobe also has a big effect. Come and be convinced. Douglas Pamily is a very good act and was appreciated by all who witnessed it. Mattin & Brown, the two clever comedians, are very funny and if you really wish to enjoy yourselves come and see them. Fave and Thomas, the classy dancing act, is indeed a very classy act and they have everything that goes to make it classy. Robert Warwick in The Dollar Markis a feature picture of merit. Robert Warwick as "Jim" Gresham and Barbara Tennant, as alice Chandler, does splendid work and wins cordial praise from spectators of The Dollar Markithe actions opens in Cobalt. These scenes taken there and closes in the East Newport and New York city. It is markedly a picture of vigorous action which rings true through nearly all of the picture, and surely every part of the picture had the interest strongly. The beet part of the story is the adventure of the two lovers in a food. The terrible storm has driven the girl into the hut of the miner "Jim" owner of the Neille Davis mine, a property worth millions and which the trust, of which Alice's father is one of the leading spirits, wants to get cheaply. The dam above the hut breaks, the water washes down the valley, and the but goes with the rest of the primitive buildings.
